Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

1) Responsive to communication(s) filed on 22 February 2007.

2a) This action is FINAL. 2b) This action is non-final.

3) Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 11-14 and 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bellanger (US Patent 4,722,426).

Regarding claim 11, Bellanger discloses Clutch Protection System that has the following claimed limitations:

The claimed clutch and a sensor for monitoring clutch slippage is met by the clutch and the sensing means (column 1, lines 20-39);

The claimed control for receiving a signal from said sensor indicating a clutch slippage, said control communicating with a warning device to provide a warning to an operator of said clutch slippage is met by the sensing means providing signals indicative of excessive slippage in the friction clutch to an indicating device (column 1, lines 20-39);

The claimed control being operable to change said warning should said clutch slippage continue over time is met by the signal being above a second level and altering the frequency at which the indicator is flashed to indicate the clutch slippage has increased (column 5, lines 8-41).

Regarding claim 12, the claimed control providing an increase in frequency of said warning if said clutch slippage continues to occur is met by the signal being above a second level and altering the frequency at which the indicator is flashed to indicate the clutch slippage has increased (column 5, lines 8-41).

Regarding claim 13, the claimed increase in frequency occurs if said clutch slippage continues to occur over time is met by the signal being above a second level and altering the frequency at which the indicator is flashed to indicate the clutch slippage has increased (column 5, lines 8-41).

Regarding claim 14, the claimed increase in frequency occurs if said clutch has an increasing temperature is met by the signal being above a second level and altering the frequency at which the indicator is flashed to indicate the clutch slippage has increased and the sensing means monitoring for increases in temperature (column 1, lines 20-39 and column 5, lines 8-41).

Regarding claim 16, the claim is interpreted and rejected as claim 11 stated above.

Regarding claim 17, the claim is interpreted and rejected as claim 12 stated above.

Regarding claim 18, the claim is interpreted and rejected as claim 14 stated above.
